

The Active Spectator will be presented at the Pop up festival in Nicosia on the 19th December for 2 shows (19.30 and 21.00).

THE ACTIVE SPECTATOR is a participatory performance where the spectators (16 people) , are guided by the actor in a very organic way, to participate / play , in the different fictional situations proposed during the performance . The actor uses the actions and reactions of the participants as performance material for the development of the piece. The work therefore becomes a circumstance of co-creation between the actor and the participants.
